

Expanding Horizons

Global LGBT Journeys through Time and Identity

Individual self-reflection

What makes you feel unshaken when the world is shifting?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

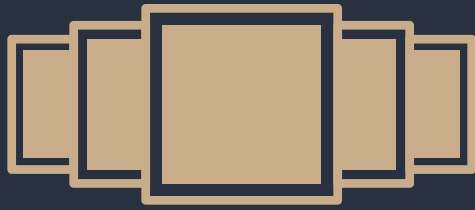

How do we create space for each other when we don't agree?

---

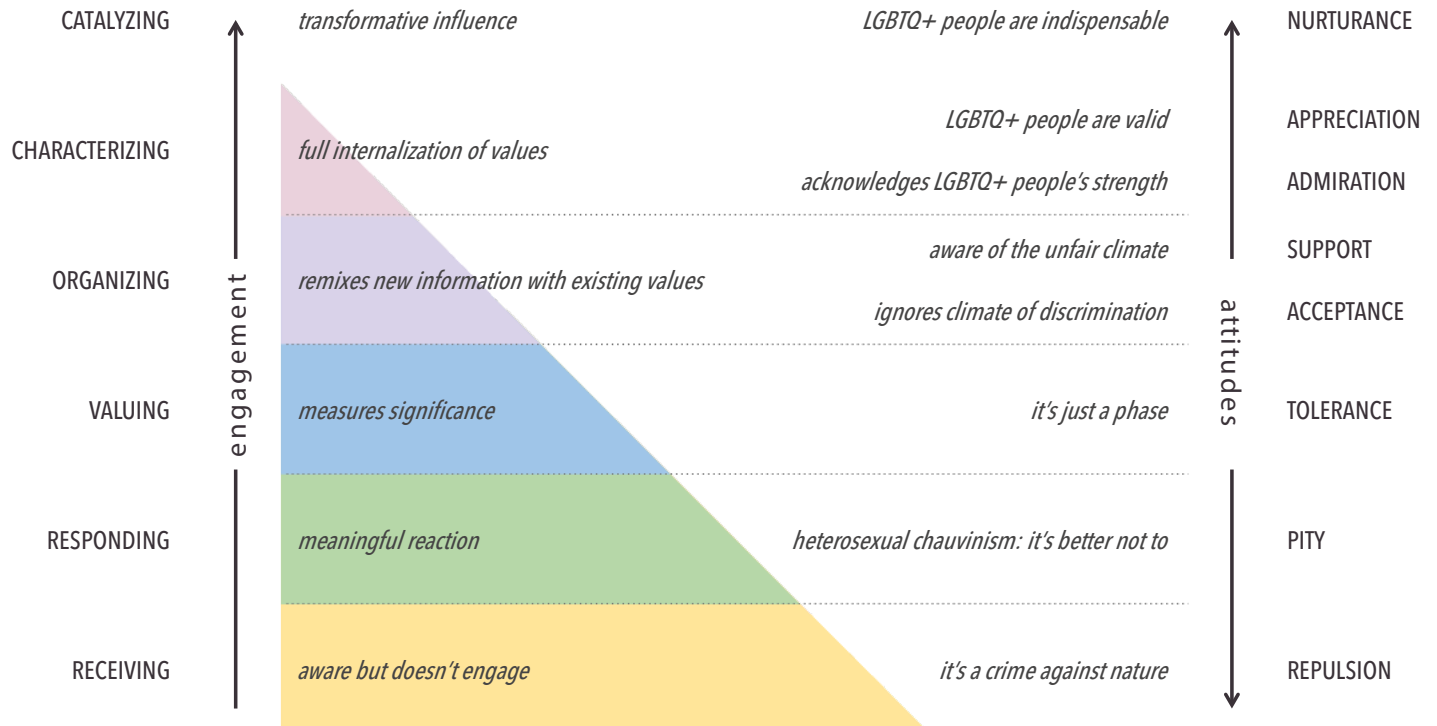

---

---

Expanding Horizons

Global LGBT Journeys through Time and Identity

Which ATTITUDE feels most like where I am (or, someone I care about is) today?

What ENGAGEMENT would it take to move up just one level?

---

---

---

---

---

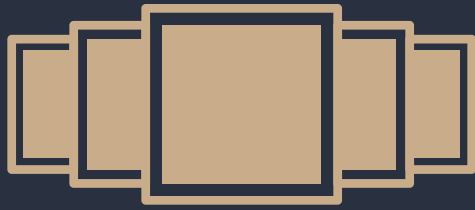

---

What fears, beliefs, or stories might be keeping me rooted where I am (or, someone I care about)?

---

Wherever you are is a beginning, not a verdict.

Expanding Horizons

Global LGBT Journeys through Time and Identity

eros

passionate love (often embodied)

philia

deep affection and
friendship;
brotherly love

philautia

self-interest

storge

affection between parents and children

agape

the love between God and humanity
(charity)

"Love Your Enemies"

sermon delivered at Dexter Avenue
Baptist Church, Montgomery,
Alabama

November 17, 1957

Taking Out the Toxic

Mind Matters

Unapologetic
Action

Collective Compassion

Expanding Horizons

Global LGBT Journeys through Time and Identity

Individual self-reflection

Name three messages you've received about yourself (your body, beliefs, identity) that made you feel "less than."

---

---

---

---

---

Then, name three things that remind you of your worth.

---

---

---

---

---

What if every time we extended that same radical self-love outward, we chipped away at the forces telling others they don't belong?

---

---

---

---

---

How might my love for myself equip me to be more open to dialogue, even when it's uncomfortable?

---

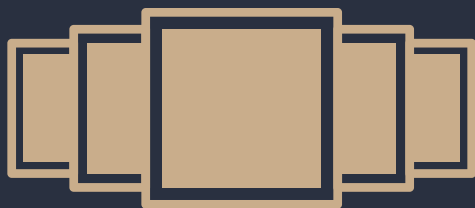

---

---

---

---

Wherever you are is a beginning, not a verdict.

Expanding Horizons

Global LGBT Journeys through Time and Identity

Group discussion

Where does self-love meet justice work?

How do you stay lit without burning out?

What role does self-acceptance play in standing up for others?

Expanding Horizons

Global LGBT Journeys through Time and Identity

I write and design community-based history exhibits to empower people to see their lives as chapters in a long, queer story that will never end.

Through Science to Justice

Legacies of LGBT people in STEM

Flyover Country

LGBT activism firsts in the Midwest

Decolonizing Queerness

Homophobia as a Legacy of Colonialism

Blossom & Wilt

Queerness under Fascism

The Stonewall Inn

The Riot that Sparked a Movement

EXHIBITION IN RESEARCH & DEVELOPMENT

The Power Here Is You

Milwaukee's Response to AIDS

Meet Vince

At the beginning of Pride Month 2024, Vince Tripi founded Expanding Horizons, a social-purpose business that offers traveling exhibits, talks, and curricula designed to celebrate diversity and foster pride in LGBTQ+ heritage. Vince is a passionate advocate for the LGBTQ+ community, dedicated to preserving its history and promoting a sense of belonging.

His notable achievements include being named Advocate of the Year by the Wisconsin LGBT Chamber of Commerce, a top 25 Emerging Training Leader by Training magazine, and receiving the Distinguished Service Award from UW–Milwaukee's LGBT Resource Center.

He serves on the board of directors of Milwaukee Pride, Inc.